

The Conference

The Neighborhood Resource Center (NRC) and the Council of Albany Neighborhood Associations (CANA) are sponsoring this tenth annual Neighborhoods Work Conference.

The conference theme is Public Safety - Perceptions and Partnerships.

The conference will examine the types and trends in crime and violence in our neighborhoods. Current City and neighborhood-based partnerships and strategies that are confronting crime and promoting public safety will be presented.

The goal of the conference is to inform, empower, and encourage neighbors, residents, neighborhood associations and all interested groups to create and promote safe, friendly, and livable neighborhoods.

Cosponsoring Organizations

NEIGHBORHOOD RESOURCE CENTER (NRC), founded in 1975, promotes the development and growth of neighborhood associations in the City of Albany. NRC believes that active neighbors working through their individual neighborhood associations are the basic building blocks of a strong, growing community.

COUNCIL OF ALBANY NEIGHBORHOOD ASSOCIATIONS (CANAs), founded in 1976, is the federation of neighborhood associations and other interested organizations, that joined together to address issues which affect the quality of life in Albany. Such issues include the city's budget, recreation, code enforcement, education, historic preservation and public safety. All CANA meetings are open to the public. Visit the website for dates and times.
